ROSEN, IRVING

IRVING ROSEN

Funeral services for Irving Rosen, 64, of 41 Unity Street, Pawtucket, a music director and wedding coordinator, who died May 28 after an illness of several days, were held the following day at the Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel of Rhode Island. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Irene (Marner) Rosen, he was born in Providence on July 3, 1910, a son of the late Bernard and Sophie (Worth) Rosen. He had lived in the Pawtucket-Providence area all of his life.

He was proprietor of the Irving Rosen Music for 45 years and was proprietor of Crossley Electric Company, Providence, for 25 years until 1965, when he became manager of the electrical department at William K. Toole Hardware Company. He was a licensed master electrician in Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Connecticut.

He was a member of the Rhode Island Jewish Fraternal Association and of the Masonic Order. He was a 1930 graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Sandra Hazen of Pawtucket; a brother, Al Rosen of Cranston; two sisters, Pauline Jacobs of Cranston and Mrs. Harry Scheck of New York City, and four grandchildren.
