Irving Rosen

Was music director, wedding coordinator, electrician

PAWTUCKET — Irving Rosen, 64, of 41 Unity St., a music director and wedding coordinator, died yesterday in Miriam Hospital, Providence, after an illness of several days. He was the husband of Irene (Marner) Rosen.

Born in Providence July 3, 1910, a son of the late Bernard and Sophie (Worth) Rosen, he lived in the Pawtucket-Providence area all of his life. He was proprietor of the Irving Rosen Music for 45 years and was proprietor of Crossley Electric Co., Providence, for 25 years until 1965, when he became manager of the electrical department at William K. Toole Hardware Co. He was a licensed master electrician in Rhode Island, Massachusetts and Connecticut. He was a member of the Rhode Island Jewish Fraternal Association and of the Masonic Order. He was a 1930 graduate of the Boston Conservatory of Music.

He also is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Sandra Hazen of Pawtucket; a brother, Al Rosen of Cranston; two sisters, Mrs. Pauline Jacobs of Cranston and Mrs. Harry Scheck of New York City, and four grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held at 1 p.m. today at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel of Rhode Island, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
