MARVIN E. ROSEN

MIAMI, Fla. — Marvin E. Rosen, 67, of 13500 S. W. 70th Ave., Miami, died June 9. He was the husband of Iris (Schwartz) Rosen and the son of Albert and Helen (Greenfield) Rosen.

A resident of Miami, he served in the Navy in World War II, and later graduated from Lehigh College. He was president of a division of Borden Foods before founding the business of Bay Purveyors, a wholesale food business, in Miami. He was long active in Jewish charitable causes in the Miami area.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Gary Rosen, a daughter, Jody Rosen, both of Dallas, Texas; and two sisters, Janet Zurier of Providence and Phyllis Herman of Cos Cob, Conn.

The funeral was held on June 12 at the Mt. Nebo Memorial Gardens in Kendall, Fla.
