Nellie Rosen

PROVIDENCE — Nellie Rosen of 184 Irving Ave., widow of Max Rosen, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosen were charter members of Temple Emanu-El, and also involved with Touro Synagogue. Her grandfather was among those responsible for the reopening many years ago of the Newport synagogue.

Mrs. Rosen was a past vice president of the Ladies Union Aid of Miriam Hospital, and a member of its Women's Association and the Jewish Home for the Aged.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Isaac and Ida (Billard) Brynes. She was a graduate of the Rhode Island School of Design, and early in life taught art to private pupils. At that time, she also was a volunteer Red Cross nurse in Newport.

She leaves a daughter, Gloria R. Rosenbaum and two sons, Dr. Robert H. Rosen and Phillip S. Rosen, all of Providence; a sister, Dorothy Levinson of Cranston; and six grandchildren.

The funeral service was to be held today at 2 p.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, with burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
