Theodore ROSEN M.D.

ROSEN M.D., Theodore

Theodore Rosen, MD - Underneath the warmth of an afghan made by his late daughter Margie and surrounded by his family, Theodore Rosen died of natural causes at his home in Manchester on Wednesday evening, (February 1, 2012) He was 103. Dr. Rosen, the son of Max and Sarah Rosen, was born in London, England on December 16, 1908. When he was two, his parents immigrated to America and settled in Brockton, MA. After graduating from Tufts Medical School in 1933, Dr. Rosen became an eye, ear, nose and throat specialist. He was a medical officer in the Indian Service and later in the Civilian Conservation Corps. During World War II Dr. Rosen was a US Navy medical officer. In 1946 Dr. Rosen opened a private practice in Manchester. He was on the staff at Manchester Memorial Hospital. In 1992, 45 years and almost 30,000 patients later, Dr. Rosen retired at the age of 83. Dr. Rosen was a member of Beth Sholom B'nai Israel in Manchester. He served as chairman of the building committee that selected the design for the current synagogue building. Dr. Rosen leaves his wife of 54 years, Gladys Basse Rosen, his children Theodore Rosen and wife Nadia Hassani, Paula Rosen, Stanley Rosen and wife Marylou Rosen, and Rachel Rosen and husband Michael Collins, and his 11 cherished grandchildren. His daughter Marjorie Thomas predeceased Dr. Rosen. A man who was passionately interested in science and history, Dr. Rosen wrote three books: Scientist without a Laboratory: Phases of Neutron Polarity (2004), Doctor without a Watch: Looking at the Changes in Medicine (2008), and The Walking Doctor: My First Century in Medicine (2011).

Funeral services will be on Monday, (February 6, 2012) at Beth Sholom B'nai Israel, 400 East Middle Turnpike in Manchester at 10:30 AM with Rabbi Richard Plavin and Cantor Anita Schubert officiating. Interment will follow at the Beth Sholom Memorial Park Cemetery on Autumn Street in Manchester. Following interment the family will be receiving friends during Shiva at their home, 100 Waranoke Rd., Manchester and again on Tuesday and Wednesday from 2-4 p.m. and 6:30-8:30 p.m., with a service at 7:15 p.m. on Tuesday and Wednesday. In lieu of flowers, the family requests that donations be made to the Theodore Rosen Scholarship for Science and Mathematics, c/o The Manchester Scholarship Foundation, 20 Hartford Road, Manchester, CT 06040.

Published in The Hartford Courant on February 5, 2012