SEYMOUR ROSENBERG

Funeral services for Seymour Rosenberg, 48, of 15 Ray Street, a teacher at Oliver Hazard Perry Junior High School, who died Monday after a two-week illness, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Pauline (Agronick) Rosenberg, he was born in Providence on June 25, 1919, a son of the late David and Anna (Rosenberg) Rosenberg. He was a lifelong Providence resident.

Previously he had been a registered pharmacist and a representative for Roche Laboratories of Nutley, N.J.

He attended Providence College and was a graduate of Rhode Island College of Pharmacy in 1943. He was a member of Temple Beth El, Touro Fraternal Association, Rhode Island Pharmaceutical Association, Rhode Island Traveling Men's Association, Rhode Island Education Association and American Federation of Teachers.

Besides his wife, he is survived by two sons, Marc H. and David D. Rosenberg, both at home; a brother, Malvern Ross of Pawtucket, and a sister, Mrs. Peter Tommasiano of Boston.
