Obituaries

LOUIS ROSENFELD

Louis Rosenfeld, 85, of Greenwood House, Warwick, died Saturday, April 4, 1987, at Kent County Hospital. He was the husband of the late Ida Leach-Rosenfeld. Born in Providence, the son of the late Leon and Rachel (Zellerkraut) Rosenfeld.

He was a Warwick resident for one year, previously residing in Cranston for over 30 years. Mr. Rosenfeld was associated with his wife, Ida, in the operation of the Ida Leach Dress Shop in Garden City for many years until the business was sold six years ago. He was a 50-year member of Decalogue Lodge A.F. & A.M. of Joliet, Ill. He was also a member of the Consistory and the Shrine.

He is survived by one brother, Nathan Rosenfeld of Cranston and two sisters, Goldie Kaufmann, Fall River and Mildred Broadman, California.

A graveside service was held at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Arrangements by the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope Street, Providence.

ROSENFELD, LOUIS

Rosenfeld, Louis