Ethel S. Rosenfield

NEWPORT — Ethel S. Rosenfield, 91, formerly of Thurston Avenue, died Friday at the Village House Convalescent Home. She was the widow of Paul Rosenfield.

Born in Mahlin, Russia, a daughter of the late Ben-Zion and Baila (Orham) Bazarsky, she came to this country in 1911, settling in the Boston area for 30 years, and later moved to Philidelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. Rosenfield owned a grocery business in Philadelphia for 17 years before coming to Newport in 1946, where they owned the Spring Street Market before retiring in 1961. She was a member of Touro Synagogue, the Ladies Auxiliary of Congregation Jeshuat Israel, and Hadassah.

She leaves a daughter, Mrs. Emily R. Kusinitz of Newport; a sister, Mrs. Maria Zubok of New York City; three grandsons and two great-granddaughters.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Hoffman Memorial Chapel, Fowler Avenue. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery, Middletown.
