ROSENTHAL, HELEN

MIDDLETOWN

ROSENTHAL, HELEN 101 died at home on June 6, 2013. Born in Fall River MA to Jenny and Samuel Robinson, Mrs.

Rosenthal graduated from Brown University in 1932 with a Bachelor of Arts degree. Following graduation, she worked in New York City as an executive secretary for a private insurance company.

Mrs. Rosenthal was the wife of the late Everett Rosenthal, founder and president of Everett Motors in Fall River MA.

Mrs. Rosenthal was active in community affairs in both Fall River and Newport. She served on the board of the League of Women Voters and served on the executive committee of the Fall River Mental Health Association. Mrs. Rosenthal was an ardent supporter of the arts. She was a founding member of the Newport Players Guild, she served as a docent at the RISD museum, and she was a long-time member of the Newport Art Museum.

Possessed of a robust sense of humor, Mrs. Rosenthal was widely admired for her vibrancy, her persistent interest in people, ideas, politics, and popular culture. She was an adventurous person who traveled extensively throughout the world, and eagerly embraced every opportunity for new learning.

Rosenthal was the mother of the late Douglas Myron Rosenthal and Alan Lee Rosenthal. She is survived my numerous nieces and nephews, grand nieces and grand nephews.

Services will be held at 11:00am on Sunday June 9, 2013 at temple Shalom, 222 Valley Rd Newport RI. Donations may be sent to the Newport Academy of Ballet.
