PJ-B 10:30-89

Irene Rosenthal

BROOKLINE, Mass. — Irene Rosenthal, 87, who managed millinery stores in Providence for 15 years before retiring in 1950, died yesterday at St. Elizabeth Hospital in Brighton, Mass. She was the widow of Abraham Rosenthal.

Born in Lithuania, she was a daughter of the late Joseph S. and Esther (Diamond) Morein. A Providence resident 42 years, she had lived in Brookline since 1952.

Mrs. Rosenthal attended the former Bryant and Stratton Business College, now Bryant College.

She was a member of the Order of the Eastern Star and the Jewish War Veterans Auxiliary of Providence. Mrs. Rosenthal was a member of Hadassah and the Sisterhood of Temple Kehillath Israel in Brookline.

She leaves two daughters, Lorraine Webber of Warwick and Gloria Hurwitz of Barrington; four grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at 1:30 p.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

ROSENTHAL IRENE