Nathaniel Rosner

Had owned Aborn Chemical, Providence, retiring in 1973

EAST PROVIDENCE — Nathaniel Rosner, 87, of 1357 Wampanoag Trail, and Deerfield Beach, Fla., owner of Aborn Chemical Industries, Providence, for many years retiring in 1973, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital. He was the husband of Mildred (Bander) Rosner.

Born in North Providence, a son of the late Herman and Rosa Rosner, he had lived in Barrington most of his life before moving to East Providence two years ago. He owned a home in Deerfield Beach for several years.

He was a member of Temple Beth-El, the Palestine Shrine, Scottish Rite, Union Lodge No. 10, A.F.&A.M. He also was a past patron of the Martha Washington Chapter No. 16, O.E.S., all of Rhode Island. In Florida, he was a member of the Double Eagle, the Square Club and the Shrine Club of Deefield Beach.

Besides his wife he leaves two brothers, Hyman Rosner of Providence and Leslie Rosner of Kansas.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 3 p.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
