ROTHMAN, Ida

PJ. B 8-29-1995

IDA E. ROTHMAN, 89, of Collins Avenue, Surfside, Fla., died Aug. 20 at the Miami, Fla., Heart Institute. She was the wife of Maurice Rothman. She was the widow of Bernard Goodman.

Born in New York, a daughter of the late Philip and Sarah (Meyerowitz) Coron, she had lived in Providence and Cranston before moving to Florida 30 years ago.

Mrs. Rothman was a 1927 graduate of Hunter College. She had co-owned the Stadium Hosiery Co. She was a former president of the Miriam Hospital Women's Association. She was a member of Temple Emanu-El.

Besides her husband she leaves a daughter, Arline Alpert of Fall River, Mass.; two sons, Carl Goodman of Chicago, Ill., and David Rothman of Rutherford, N.J.; seven granchilden and six great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Sylvia Logan and Blanche Dermansky.

The funeral was held Aug. 22 at Lakeside Memorial Park in Miami.