ROTHMAN, MAURICE

9-23-2003

MAURICE ROTHMAN, 102, of Rutherford, N.J., and formerly of Pawtucket, owner of the former New York Cut-Rate Store, died Sept. 5 at the Clara Maass Continuing Care Center, Belleville, N.J.

He was the husband of the late Belle (Gross) Rothman, and of the late Ida (Goodman) Rothman. Born in Hungary in 1901, a son of the late David and Belle (Zwirin) Rothman, he came to the United States in 1920, settling in Scranton, Pa., then moving to Pawtucket in the early 1930s. He had lived in Pawtucket until about 40 years ago, when he retired to Surfside, Fla. He moved to New Jersey 2 years ago, to live with his son.

Mr. Rothman had owned the former New York Cut-Rate Store, in Pawtucket, from the late 1930s until the early 1960s.

He was a former member of Temple Emanu-El, in Providence.

He leaves a son, David Rothman of Rutherford; a stepdaughter, Arline (Goodman) Alpert of Fall River; seven grandchildren; and seven great-grandchildren.

The funeral and burial were in Lyndhurst, N.J., on Sept. 7
