Barrington woman killed in flipover

EAST PROVIDENCE — A 39-year-old Barrington woman died after she was thrown from her car outside the Gates of Heaven Cemetery on Wednesday night.

The police are still trying to figure out what caused Heddy Rothschild to lose control of her 1995 Chevrolet sedan as she drove on the Wampanoag Trail. She was not speeding, said Lt. Armen Garo, but her car suddenly veered out of the southbound lane into the median, sending it airborne.

The car nosedived onto the median, sending Rothschild, who was not wearing a seat belt, through the window, Garo said. The car flipped twice before landing on its wheels in the northbound lane, he said.

Rothschild was found about 15 feet away from her sedan. She was pronounced dead at Rhode Island Hospital.
