RUBIN, AARON

ENH 2-4-2005

Aaron Rubin, 91

PROVIDENCE — Aaron Rubin, 91, a retired purchasing agent, died Jan. 5. He was the husband of Ethel (Zung) Rubin. Born in New York City, a son of the late Jacob and Fanny (Seltzer) Rubin, he lived in Providence for 20 years.

He attended the University of Wisconsin.

He served with the U.S. Army in Italy during World War II.

Mr. Rubin had a great love of classical music. He often led discussions on the subject at the former Jewish Home for the Aged.

Besides his wife, he leaves a daughter, Amy Rubin of Seattle, Wash.; and a sister, Florence Silver of Easton, Penna.

Burial was in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.