RUBIN, Bernard

Middletown

BERNARD G. RUBIN, 82, of 3 Admiralty Drive, formerly of 136 Kay St., a salesman in the Washington, D.C., area most of his life, died Wednesday at the Veterans Administration Medical Center, Providence. He was the husband of the late Bessie (Smith) Rubin.

Born in Bocomoke City, Md., the son of the late Charles and Rea (Heilig) Rubin, he and his wife moved to Rhode Island after he retired, in 1992.

Mr. Rubin was an Army veteran of World War II, serving in Europe.

He was a member of Congregation Jeshuat Israel (Touro Synagogue) and was very active in the synagogue while living in the Washington area.

He leaves two sisters-in-law, Patricia Smith of Newport and Sally Higgins of Washington, and several cousins.

The funeral will be held today at 11 a.m. in the Hoffman Jewish Memorial Chapel, Fowler Avenue. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery, Wyatt Road.
