RUBIN, David

PSJ 3-27-1994

DAVID RUBIN, 91, of Hallworth House, 66 Benefit St., a businessman and former president of the Benedict & Co., New Haven, Conn., one of several family fuel businesses in New Haven, Hartford, and Springfield, Mass., died Friday at the house. He was the husband of the late Florence (Jacobson) Rubin.

Born in New Haven, a son of the late Nathan and Ida (Ladd) Rubin, he lived in Palm Beach, Fla., before moving to Rhode Island in 1988. He previously lived on Highland Avenue, Providence.

Mr. Rubin, at age 13, began working in his father's wood and coal business. He later attended Syracuse and Boston Universities, and later lead the family business into oil and gasoline. He was distributor for the Cities Service Oil Co. in New Haven.

He was a member of Temple Mishkan Israel, and the Probus Club, New Haven. He was honored by the Connecticut Mental Health Association, and the Connecticut Prison Association for his volunteer work.

Mr. Rubin leaves a sister, Ester Portnow of New York; a son, Dr. Lowell Rubin; a daughter-in-law, Margot Rubin, both of Providence, and two grandsons.

The funeral service will be held Tuesday at 10 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St. Burial will be in Swan Point Cemetery.

RUBIN, David

March 25, 1994. Residence, Hallworth House, 66 Benefit St., Providence. Beloved husband of the late Florence (Jacobson) Rubin. Devoted father and father-in-law of Dr. Lowell and Margot Rubin of Providence. Dear brother of Ester Portnow of NYC. Loving grandfather of Noah Rubin of NYC and Gideon Rubin of Boston, MA. Funeral services Tuesday, 10 a.m. at the MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St. (corner of Doyle Ave.) In lieu of flowers contributions in his memory may be made to the Center For Psychological Studies in the Nuclear Age, 1493 Cambridge St., Cambridge, MA 02139. The family will be receiving friends and relatives at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Lowell Rubin, 85 Power St., Providence, Tuesday 2-4 and 7-9 p.m.

SALVATI, George