RI Herald 6-8-89

MYER H. RUBIN

PROVIDENCE — Myer H. Rubin, 93, a resident of the Jewish Home for the Aged, Hillside Avenue, for the past six months, died May 3, 1989, at Miriam Hospital.

Born in Lithuania, a son of the ıte Morris and Tema (Dimond) ubin, he had lived at Rumford owers, East Providence, for eight ars before moving to the home. had also lived in Cranston and vidence.

Ir. Rubin was owner of the former Mark Cleansers, Cranston, for 20 years. He was a member of the United Commercial Travelers.

He leaves a son, Joseph Rubin of California; a daughter, Rae Baker of Ft. Lauderdale, Fla.; a brother, Nathan C. Rubin of New London, Conn.; four grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

A graveside service was held at Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick. Services were coordinated by Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St.

RUBIN, MYER H.