KENNETH SACKETT, 83, of 915 Putnam Pike, a retired purchasing director, died yesterday at Roger Williams Medical Center, Providence.

He was the husband of Sylvia (Lipsey) Sackett. The couple were married for 57 years. Born in Bristol, a son of the late Louis and Marian Sackett, he had lived in Providence and Cranston most of his life.

Mr. Sackett was a purchasing director for Benny's Home and Auto Stores, where he had worked for more than 70 years.

He was an Army veteran of World War II. He served as a military policeman in the Pacific theatre.

He was a member of several automotive trade associations. He was a member of Touro Fraternal Association Friendship Lodge and Temple Sinai, Cranston.

Mr. Sackett was known as a horrible golfer and great dancer.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Dr. Burton Sackett of Warwick; a daughter, Susan S. Stern of Brooklyn, N.Y.; two sisters, Barbara Berman in Florida and Hope Myerson of Cranston; and four grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11:30 a.m. at Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Sinai Memorial Park Cemetery, Warwick.
