SAFFIR, BEVERLY

Beverly (Rotmer) Saffir, 79

WELLINGTON, Fla. – Beverly Saffir, of Wellington and formerly of West Hartford, Conn., died Jan. 29. Born in Providence, she was the daughter of the late Samuel and Bessie (Bello) Rotmer. 2013

She is survived by her husband of more than 58 years, Len, her daughter and son-in-law Linda and Herbert Mendelsohn, her son and daughter-in-law Kenneth and Julie Saffir, and her grandchildren, Jaimee Newman and her husband Matt, Lauren Zuboff and her fiancé Peter Sharkey, Gregory Zuboff, Robin Saffir and Alex Mendelsohn. She is also leaves her sister Sandra Rubin and companion Morris Lazar, her brother and sister-in-law Edward Rotmer and Lorraine, many nieces, nephews and lifelong friends, including Karen Mogbo.

Shiva will be observed at the home of Ken and Julie Saffir, 3 Stillwood Chase, Weatogue, Conn., on Friday, Feb. 1 from 3 p.m. to sunset.

Donations may be made to The Jay Robert Lauer Hospice Care Unit, JFK Medical Center, 5301 South Congress Ave., Lake Worth, FL 33462 or the charity of one's choice.