SALK,
Hyman

id

Providence
PSJ 11·9·1997

HYMAN SALK, 90, of Lake Worth, Fla., formerly of Providence, who worked in the transportation industry and was involved in real estate, died Friday at the Hospice of Palm Beach County. He was the husband of Esther (Horowitz) Salk.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Samuel and Esther (Berson) Salk.

He was an Army Air Forces veteran of World War II.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Ann Rachel in Massachusetts and Rae Miriam in Texas; and five grandchildren.

A chapel service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in the Menorah Garden & Funeral Chapels, Memorial Park Road, West Palm Beach, Fla.