OBITUARIES

SALTZMAN, ABRAHAM

Abraham Saltzman

Owned downtown Pawtucket men's store 45 years, until 1972

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. — Abraham Saltzman, 80, of 4330 Hillcrest Drive, who owned and operated Saltzman's Men's Store in Pawtucket for 45 years, died yesterday at Hollywood Medical Center. He was the husband of Gladys (Berry) Saltzman.

In addition to the original store on Main Street in Pawtucket, there also were Saltzman's Men's Stores in Providence and Attleboro, Mass. He ran the Pawtucket store until retiring in 1972.

Mr. Saltzman was a member of Temple Emanu-El and its Men's Club, and the Barney Merry Masonic Lodge. He was past president of the Henry Friedman Lodge, B'nai B'rith.

He was an Army veteran of World War II.

Born in Providence, he was a son of the late Harry and Annie (Holtz) Saltzman. He moved from Pawtucket to Florida 12 years ago.

Besides his wife, he leaves a son, Stephen Saltzman of Woodbridge, Conn.; two sisters, Ruth Bromberg of East Providence and Helene Michael of Miami, Fla., and three grandchildren.

The funeral service will be tomorrow at noon at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
