Saltzman, Reba
February 14, 2017

WARWICK

SALTZMAN, REBA

92, passed away on Feb. 14 at Kent Hospital after a brief bout with pneumonia and the flu. Born in Atlantic City, N.J., she moved to Brooklyn, N.Y., as a young woman and lived the past six years in the Providence-Warwick area following the death of her beloved husband, Morton Saltzman. She touched many people's hearts at Tamarisk Assisted Living, where she lived and was known for her good nature, engagement in activities, and love of movies. Reba leaves behind her two devoted sons, Michael and Jonathan, their wives, Arlette and Nancy; and two grandchildren, Juliette and Noah. She will be greatly missed.