GEORGE SAMDPERIL

George Samdperil of 264 Fourth St., founder of the New England Metal Company, Inc., and vice president until his retirement, died unexpectedly Tuesday while traveling in Israel.

Mr. Samdperil founded his business shortly after coming here about 60 years ago.

Formerly active in many charitable and civic groups, he had been president of Congregation Sons of Zion, a trustee of Miriam Hospital, and had served on the boards of directors of the General Jewish Committee, B'nai B'rith, and the Jewish Home for the Aged. He was a member of Temple Emanu-El.

Born in Poland, he was a son of the late Charles and Mollie Samdperil. He was the husband of the late Mrs. Fannie (Nutman) Samdperil.

His survivors, all in Providence, are a son, Nathan Samdperil; two daughters, Mrs. Jack M. Queler, and Mrs. Shepley H. Gray; two brothers, Gabriel and Isadore Samdperil; three sisters, Mrs. Louis Granoff, Mrs. Irving J. Glantz, and Mrs. Julius Bomes, four grandchildren, and a great-granddaughter
