EASHER SAMUELS

Funeral services for Easher Samuels of 14 Elgin street, one of the city's earliest residents and for 30 years manager of the Guarantee Clothing Company, who died last Friday night at his home, were held last Sunday morning from Mr. Samuel's home. Rabbi William G. Braude officiated and burial was in the Lincoln Park Cemetery.

Born in New York city, a son of the late Isaac and Hannah (Levine) Samuels. He spent his childhood and youth in southern Rhode Island and Connecticut towns, coming to Providence as a young man.

His wife, Annie (Levy) Samuels, died two years ago. He leaves three daughters, Mrs. Irving L. Shein, Mrs. Robert Brown, and Hilda P. Samuels, all of this city, four grandchildren, four brothers, and three sisters.
