SAVAL, JEANETTE (KOPELMAN)

JEANETTE SAVAL, 93, of the Summit and Pavilion, 1085 North Main St., a homemaker, died Sunday at home.

She had been the wife of the late Meyer Saval, and of the late Myron Hart. Born in Fargo, S.D., a daughter of the late Jacob and Lena (Lifschitz) Kopelman, she had lived in Medford, Mass., before moving to Providence 44 years ago.

A graduate of Fargo High School, where she had the role of leading lady in her senior class play, she later had attended the University of Wisconsin at Madison and North Dakota State University.

Mrs. Saval was an amateur poet and lyricist. She was a member of the Leisure Club, where she had presented book reviews, and the Garden Club.

A member of Temple Emanu-El and its Sisterhood, she also was a member of Hadassah, the Brandeis National Women's Committee, the Miriam Hospital Women's Association, and the former Women's Association of the Jewish Home for the Aged.

She leaves a son, Richard Saval of Wayland, Mass.; two daughters, Dorothy Levy of Providence and Lois Finstein of Framingham, Mass.; seven grandchildren; and six great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Alick and Louis Kopelman, Dave Elman, Toby Torpey, Rose Weingarten and Dorothy Hart.

A graveside funeral service is planned today at 1:45 p.m. in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.
