SAVAL, MEYER

Meyer Saval, 79; insurance executive

PROVIDENCE — Meyer Saval, 79, of 285 Elmgrove Ave. died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Jeanette (Kopelman) Saval.

Born in Pawtucket, a son of the late Joseph and Eva Saval, he lived in Providence for 27 years. He previously lived in Medford and Everett, Mass., for many years.

Mr. Saval was executive vice president of the American Universal Insurance Co. for 30 years before retiring four years ago. He attended Harvard University and Boston University. He was a member of the board of directors of Temple Emanu-El, and a member of its Men's Club. He was a member of board of trustees of the Jewish Home of the Aged, and a member of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. He was a past president of the B' n ai B'rith Lodge, Everett. Before his 30-year association with the American Universal Insurance Co., he had been in the retail field for 25 years.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Levy of Providence and Mrs. Lois Finstein of Framingham, Mass.; a son, Richard Saval of Wayland, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. Rose Zang of Marblehead, Mass.; three brothers, Maurice H. Saval of Boston, Jack Saval of Marblehead, Samuel Saval of Revere, Mass., and six grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.

SAVAL, MEYER

1985

Meyer Saval

— Meyer
ek at he

ice etir-e at-versity sity. He e board of de Emanuof its Men's a member of
ees of the Jew-
the Aged, and a
the National Conf Christians and
e was a past presi-
d the B'nai B'rith Everett. Before his ar association with the erican Universal Insur-ce Co., he had been in the etail field for 25 years.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Levy of Providence and Mrs. Lois Finstein of Framingham, Mass.; a son, Richard Saval of Wayland, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. Rose Zang of Marblehead, Mass.; three brothers, Maurice H. Saval of Boston, Jack Saval of Marblehead, Samuel Saval of Revere, Mass., and six grandchildren.

A funeral service was held at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial was in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.

Meyer Saval, 79; insurance executive

PROVIDENCE — Meyer Saval, 79, of 285 Elmgrove Ave. died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Jeanette (Kopelman) Saval.

Born in Pawtucket, a son of the late Joseph and Eva Saval, he lived in Providence for 27 years. He previously lived in Medford and Everett, Mass., for many years.

Mr. Saval was executive vice president of the American Universal Insurance Co. for 30 years before retiring four years ago. He attended Harvard University and Boston University. He was a member of the board of directors of Temple Emanu-El, and a member of its Men's Club. He was a member of board of trustees of the Jewish Home of the Aged, and a member of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. He was a past president of the B' n ai B'rith Lodge, Everett. Before his 30-year association with the American Universal Insurance Co., he had been in the retail field for 25 years.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Levy of Providence and Mrs. Lois Finstein of Framingham, Mass.; a son, Richard Saval of Wayland, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. Rose Zang of Marblehead, Mass.; three brothers, Maurice H. Saval of Boston, Jack Saval of Marblehead, Samuel Saval of Revere, Mass., and six grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial will be in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.

PJ 15 9, 14, 5

SAVAL, MEYER

OBITUARIES

SAVAL, MEYER

Meyer Saval

PROVIDENCE — Meyer Saval, 79, died last week at Miriam Hospital. He was the husband of Jeanette (Kopelman) Saval.

Born in Pawtucket, a son of the late Joseph and Eva Saval, he lived in Providence for 27 years. He previously lived in Medford and Everett, Mass. for many years.

Mr. Saval was executive vice president of the American Universal Life Insurance Co. for 30 years before retiring four years ago. He attended Harvard University and Boston University. He was a member of the board of directors of Temple Emanu-El, and a member of its Men's Club. He was a member of board of trustees of the Jewish Home of the Aged, and a member of the National Conference of Christians and Jews. He was a past president and the B'nai B'rith Lodge, Everett. Before his 30-year association with the American Universal Insurance Co., he had been in the retail field for 25 years.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Dorothy Levy of Providence and Mrs. Lois Finstein of Framingham, Mass.; a son, Richard Saval of Wayland, Mass.; a sister, Mrs. Rose Zang of Marblehead, Mass.; three brothers, Maurice H. Saval of Boston, Jack Saval of Marblehead, Samuel Saval of Revere, Mass., and six grandchildren.

A funeral service was held at Temple Emanu-El, Morris Avenue. Burial was in Sharon Memorial Park, Sharon, Mass.