SCHAEFFER, SIDNEY

SIDNEY H. SCHAEFFER, 78, of Old River Road, a former paint and wallpaper store owner, died Thursday at Rhode Island Hospital.

He was the husband of the late Etta Jane (Falcofsky) Schaeffer. Born in Fall River, a son of the late David and Anna (Ehrenhaus) Schaeffer, he had lived in Pawtucket from 1956 until he moved to Lincoln two years ago.

Mr. Schaeffer was the owner of the former Capitol Paint and Wallpaper Co. in Fall River, and was a house-to-house salesman for his company, the Leslie Home Equipment Co.

He was president of Mr. "C" Inc., a company that sold products to schools and nonprofit organizations for fundraising projects. He retired in 1989.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, and served as a sergeant.

He was a member of Temple Emanu-El, past president of Mount Hope Lodge of Masons in Fall River, president of the Teacher Corps Project for the City of Pawtucket, a former member of Chased Schel Amess Association, and a volunteer at Hasbro Children's Hospital.

He leaves three daughters, Leslie L. Clark of Seekonk, Sandra H. Abrams of Warwick and Ellen B. Schaeffer of Foster; a brother, Julius Schaeffer of Providence; a companion, Evelyn Brown of Lincoln; and six grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Lester Schaeffer.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at noon in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
