Joseph J. Schaffer

WALNUT CREEK, Calif. — Joseph J. Schaffer, 81, of Terra California Drive, the president of American Tool Co., Lincoln, for 42 years before retiring five years ago, died Monday at home. He was the husband of Eva (Levine) Schaffer.

Born in Kingston, N.Y., a son of the late David and Dora (Feldman) Schaffer, he lived in Glocester for 35 years before moving to Walnut Creek three years ago.

He attended the University of Rhode Island. He was a former member of Temple Beth-El, and a member of the B'nai B'rith in Walnut Creek. He was an Army veteran of World War II, and served in the European Theater, with the 112th Anti-Aircraft Batallion.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, David E. Schaffer of Silver Spring, Md.; a daughter, Mariam Schaffer of Walnut Creek; two sisters, Sophie Blistein and Charlotte Zisman, both of Providence, and two grandchildren.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
