The Providence Journal, Friday, March 19, 1976

Dr. Scheffer; was head of Miriam

BRADENTON, Fla. — Dr. I. Herbert Scheffer, 74, the former executive director of Miriam Hospital, died yesterday in Blake Memorial Hospital here. He lived at 1137 Palma Sola Blvd. in Bradenton.

Dr. Scheffer was executive director of Miriam from 1953 to 1968, when he was named superintendent of Western Massachusetts Hospital in Westfield. He retired to Florida about two and a half years ago.

He was born March 29, 1901 in Edmunton, New Brunswick, Canada, and received his medical degree from McGill University in 1925.

He served on the staffs of McGill and Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore and in 1948 was named general medical superintendent of the New York City Department of Hospitals, later becoming the senior general medical superintendent and director.

As a major and then lieutenant colonel in the Army Medical Corps, Dr. Scheffer received the Bronze Star, Legion of Merit, Croix de Guerre with Star and the Chevalier de l'ordre de la Sante Publique, the last two from the French government.

Dr. Scheffer is survived by his wife, Marjorie (Dickinson) Scheffer of Bradenton, a daughter, Miss Marjorie E. Scheffer of New York City, three sons, Richard H. Scheffer of Sturbridge, Mass., David G. Scheffer of Jackson, Mich., and Herbert D. Scheffer of Maplewood, N.J., and five grandchildren.

No funeral service is planned.

The Evening Bulletin, Thursday, March 18, 1976 ★★★★★

OBITUARIES

Dr. I. Herbert Scheffer; once director at Miriam

BRADENTON, Fla. — Dr. I. Herbert Scheffer, 74, the former executive director of the Miriam Hospital, died today at Blake Memorial Hospital here. He lived at 1137 Palma Sola Blvd. in Bradenton.

Dr. Scheffer was executive director of Miriam from 1953 to 1968, when he was named superintendent of Western Massachusetts Hospital in Westfield, Mass. He retired to Florida about two and a half years ago.

He was born March 29, 1901 in Edmunton, New Brunswick, Canada, and received his medical degree from McGill University in 1925.

He served on the staffs of McGill and Johns Hopkins Hospital in Baltimore and in 1948 was named general medical superintendent of the New York City Department of Hospitals, later becoming the senior general medical superintendent and director.

As a major and then lieutenant colonel in the U.S. Army Medical Corps, Dr. Scheffer received the Bronze Star, Legion of Merit, Croix de Guerre with Star and the Chevalier de l'ordre de la Sante Publique, the last two from the French government.

Dr. Scheffer is survived by his wife, Marjorie (Dickinson) Scheffer of Bradenton, a daughter, Miss Marjorie E. Scheffer of New York City, three sons, Richard H. Scheffer of Sturbridge, Mass., David G. Scheffer of Jackson, Mich., and Herbert D. Scheffer of Maplewood, N.J., and five grandchildren.

No funeral service is planned.

SCHEFFER, DR.
I. HERBERT