LEONORA B. "NORA" (COHEN) SCHUMAN, 95, of West Shore Road, a retired office manager, died yesterday at Kent County Memorial Hospital.

She was the wife of the late Louis Schuman. Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Abraham and Florence (Wiener) Cohen, she was a lifelong resident of Rhode Island, living in the Garden City section of Cranston, for 35 years before moving to Warwick in 1999.

Mrs. Schuman had worked as an office manager and sales clerk for the former City Hall Store for more than 40 years. She also taught religion classes at the former Sons of Abraham Synagogue.

She was a leader with the Brownies and Girl Scouts, and was active in Jean's Duplicate Bridge Club, Cranston. She was a life member of the Women's Association of the former Jewish Home for the Aged.

She leaves a son, Jerome London, and a daughter, Dorothy London, both of Lincoln; three grandchildren, Ned London of Attleboro, Susan Herman of Marietta, Ga., and Jon London of Cranston; and four great-grandchildren. She was the sister of the late Daniel Cohen, Ruth Kozlov and Irene Schechter.

The funeral service will be held tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
