SCHWARTZ, Morris

RIHER* 3-20-64

MORRIS SCHWARTZ

Funeral services for Morris Schwartz, 84, of Lynn, Mass., a former Providence resident who died on Saturday, were held the following day at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of the late Rose (Weisbein) Schwartz, he was born in Rumania on Nov. 11, 1879, and had lived in Providence for 54 years before moving to Lynn in 1959. Before retiring 12 years ago, he operated a tailoring and furrier shop on Broad Street for 45 years.

Mr. Schwartz was a member of Congregation Shaare Zedek.

Survivors include two sons, Harry of Providence and Julius Schwartz of Philadelphia, Pa.; three daughters, Mrs. Philip Berson of Malden, Mass., Mrs. Irving Spiller of Swampscott, Mass., and Mrs. Melvin Segal, with whom he lived; two brothers, Samuel and Julius Schwartz, both of Providence; a sister, Mrs. Abraham Rosenberg of Providence; 13 grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren.