SCRIBNER, Dorothy

PJ 6-27-1999

DOROTHY SCRIBNER, 83, of Laurelmead, 355 Blackstone Blvd., a substitute teacher in the Providence School system for four years, and later, a volunteer, died yesterday at Rhode Island Hospital. She was the wife of Milton Scribner.

A lifelong resident of Providence, she was a daughter of the late Joseph and Jennie (Spack) Nutman. Mrs. Scribner graduated from Pembroke College, and received her master's from Brown University.

She was a member of Temple Emanu-El, and of its Sisterhood, and was an honorary board member. She was a former secretary and board member of the Women's Division of the Jewish Federation of Rhode Island, and an honorary board member of the Jewish Home for Aged Women's Association. In addition to her extensive volunteer work for those organizations, she also was active at Laurelmead, where she served on several committees.

Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, Neal Scribner of East Brunswick, N.J., and Eric Scribner of Waltham, Mass.; a brother, Dr. Norman Nutman of Oradell, N.J.; and four grandchildren. She was the mother of the late Arnold Scribner.

The funeral will be Monday at 11 a.m. in Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
