SEEGAL, Jacob

Jacob Seegal

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. — Jacob Seegal, 84, of Key Biscayne, and Middletown, R. I., a draftsman, engineer and supervisory engineer at the Naval Underwater Warfare Center, Newport, for 37 years before retiring in 1972, died Tuesday at St. Peter's Hospital, Albany, N.Y. He was the husband of Molly (Field) Seegal.

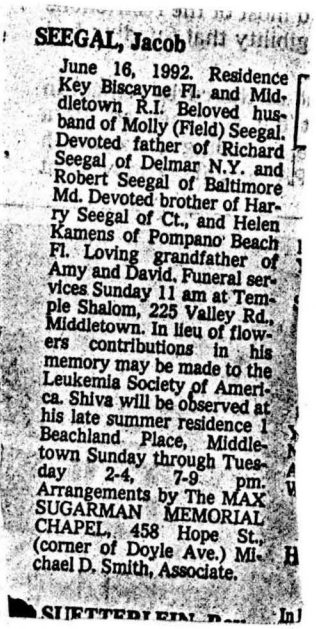

Born in Romania, a son of the late Louis and Rose (Shpringer) Seegal, he came to Rhode Island at age four.

After graduating from Brown University in 1930, he moved to Aquidneck Island in 1935. He was a Cub Scout leader and a founder of Temple Shalom, Middletown, where he served as its second president. In honor of his service to the community, Mr. Seegal received the Key to the Town of Middletown. He lived at Beechland Place.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Robert Seegal of Baltimore, Md., and Richard Seegal of Albany; a brother, Harry Seegal in Connecticut; a sister, Helen Kamins of Pompano Beach, Fla., two grandchildren.

The funeral will be held Sunday at 11 a.m. at Temple Shalom, Valley Road. Burial will be in Beth Olam Cemetery, Middletown.

PJ-B 6-18-1992

SEEGAL, Jacob

June 16, 1992. Residence Key Biscayne Fl. and Middletown R.I. Beloved husband of Molly (Field) Seegal. Devoted father of Richard Seegal of Delmar N.Y. and Robert Seegal of Baltimore Md. Devoted brother of Harry Seegal of Ct., and Helen Kamens of Pompano Beach Fl. Loving grandfather of Amy and David. Funeral services Sunday 11 am at Temple Shalom, 225 Valley Rd., Middletown. In lieu of flowers contributions in his memory may be made to the Leukemia Society of America. Shiva will be observed at his late summer residence 1 Beachland Place, Middletown Sunday through Tuesday 2-4, 7-9 pm. Arrangements by The MAX SUGARMAN MEMORIAL CHAPEL, 458 Hope St., (corner of Doyle Ave.) Michael D. Smith, Associate.