Larry J. Segal

CRANSTON — Larry Jack Segal, 35, of 104 Selma St., a real estate officer for the Bay Bank Norfolk County Trust Co., Boston, died yesterday at Brigham & Women's Hospital, Boston, after an illness of two months. He was the husband of Donna (Kuvent) Segal.

Born in Willimantic, Conn., he was a son of Philip L. and Annie (Goldstein) Segal of Lebanon, Conn.

Mr. Segal was a member of the International Association of Corporate Real Estate Executives, and Temple Sinai. He was a graduate of Northeastern University.

Besides his wife and parents he leaves two daughters, Jamie and Lauren Segal, both at home; a brother, Herbert Segal of Lebanon, and a sister, Linda Roma of Carmel, N.Y.

A funeral service was held today at Temple B'nai Israel, Jackson Street, Willimantic. Burial was in Temple B'nai Israel Cemetery, Mansfield, Conn.

3-18-83

SEGAL, LARRY J.