Manfred Seiden

TAMARAC, Fla. — Manfred Seiden, 58, a self-employed certified public accountant, was stricken and died Monday at Bellevue Hospital, New York. He was the husband of Beverly R. (Broomfield) Seiden.

Born in Bochum, Germany, a son of the late Julius and Klare (Fruchter) Seiden, he lived in Providence for many years before recently moving from Larchmont, N.Y., to Florida. He was a summer resident of Narragansett.

Mr. Seiden was a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants, and the Rhode Island, Massachusetts and New York State Societies of CPAs.

He was a member of the Larchmont Temple, Larchmont, and its Brotherhood, and an associate member of Hadassah. He was a member of Miriam Hospital, the Nicholas Brown Society at Brown University, and was active in alumni affairs at Brown.

Mr. Seiden was a member of the Brown Club of Westchester, N.Y., the AARP, the American Diabetes Association and American Heart Association.

Besides his wife he leaves two sons, Jeffrey S. Seiden of Needham Mass., Mark L. Seiden of Providence, and a sister, Shirley Smith of Holbrook, N.Y.

The funeral service will be held today at 10 a.m. at Larchmont Temple, Larchmont Avenue. Burial will be at 3:30 p.m. in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

SEIDEN, MANFRED
