SEIGLE, SAUL

PJB 1-7-12

ELSEWHERE

SEIGLE, SAUL, son of Clarence and Anna Seigle, passed away on January 5, 2012, at 97 years old, following a prolonged battle with dementia.

Born in Brooklyn in April 1914, Saul spent his youth playing stick ball on Ocean Parkway with dreams of pitching in Ebbets field. He graduated from Boys High, Brooklyn College and Brooklyn Law School. After World War II, he gave up a law practice and Brooklyn to marry his beloved Natalie S. Rosen, and settle with her in her hometown of Providence, Rhode Island. Saul and Natalie celebrated their 69th wedding anniversary on Dec 27, 2011.

Saul was president of Cellophane Products Corporation in Pawtucket, RI, until he sold the company in 1986. He was an instructor of Business Law at Providence College for the last ten years he lived in RI. In 1985 he and his wife retired to Long Boat Key, Florida.

In addition to his loving wife, Saul is survived by a son, Richard (Evelyn), a daughter, Betsy (Albyn) and four grandchildren: Zack (Jenna) Elias, Seth (Lori) Seigle, Adam (Bridget) Seigle, and Suzanne Seigle. Saul's older son, David, predeceased him in February 2004. Saul is also survived by an adoring younger sister, Bernice R. Stavisky, of Washington, D.C. His brother, Alfred, passed away in 2008.

The funeral service will be held in the Samuel Priest Chapel in Lincoln Park Cemetery on Sunday, 1/8 at 11:00 AM. Shiva will be private. Donations in Saul's memory can be made to the Natalie R. & Saul Seigle Scholarship Fund, Providence College, 1 Cunningham Square, Providence, RI 02918. Arrangements by SUGARMAN-SINAI MEMORIAL CHAPEL.