Anne Seltzer

PAWTUCKET — Anne "Honey" Seltzer of Apt. 11, 50 Dartmouth St., a former pianist and organist in the sheet music department of the former Outlet Company in Providence and volunteer worker at the Jewish Home for the Aged, died yesterday at Miriam Hospital. She was the widow of Harry Seltzer.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Max and Rebecca (Klein) Rubin. Mrs. Seltzer had lived in Providence most of her life, moving to Pawtucket six years ago.

She was a volunteer for the Womens Association at the Jewish Home for the Aged in Providence, and had played piano in many of their variety and fashion shows for more than 20 years. She was also an honorary board and life member of the Home.

Mrs. Seltzer was a board and life member of the Providence Chapter of Hadassah and a member of the Womens Association of Miriam Hospital. She was a member of B'nai B'rith and the Leisure Club.

She leaves a son, Allan Seltzer of Providence, and a sister, Ida Pollack of Hollywood, Fla.

The funeral service will be tomorrow morning at 11 a.m. at the Max Sugarman Memorial Chapel, 458 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
