Providence Journal-Bulletin, Saturday, September 24, 1983

Irving L. Shein

Was retired president of machine tool, supply firms

EAST PROVIDENCE — Irving L. Shein, 84, of Four Seasons East Apartments, 25 Arthur Ave., retired president of two companies, died at the Jewish Home for the Aged, Providence, yesterday. He was the husband of Beatrice (Samuels) Shein.

Mr. Shein, born in Providence a son of the late Jacob and Regina (Dauer) Shein, was a city resident until moving to East Providence six years ago.

He was one of the oldest living members of Temple Beth-El and was a past president of the temple's brotherhood. He was also a member of the Ledgemont Country Club of Seekonk and the Jewish Home for the Aged. He was president of both the Wheeler Machine Products Corp., a manufacturer of machine tools and accessories, and Farr & Read Inc., an industrial supply distributor for over 20 years, retiring in 1977.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Miles L. Shein of Warwick; a daughter, Shirley Hiller of New Orleans, La.; a sister, Grace Preisser of Providence; four grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 10 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St., Providence. Burial will be in Congregation Sons of Israel and David Cemetery, Providence.

SHEIN, Irving L.