PJB 6-24-86

Samuel Shenderovich

PROVIDENCE — Samuel Shenderovich, 78, of the Sister Domenica Manor, 100 Atwells Ave., a truck driver for the Russian government most of his adult life before retiring in 1968, died yesterday at the Rhode Island Medical Center, Cranston. He was the husband of Briana (Sandler) Shenderovich.

Born in Russia, a son of the late Nayich and Tiba Shenderovich, he lived in Providence for 10 years.

He was a member of the Golden Agers Club of the Jewish Community Center, and Temple Emanu-El.

Besides his wife he leaves two daughters, Asya Stambler of Warwick, Ida Zeltzer of Chicago, and two grandchildren.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 9 a.m. at Mount Sinai Memorial Chapel, 825 Hope St. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.

Shenderovich
Samuel