Providence

ETHEL SHINDLER, 92, of Dexterdale Road, a homemaker, died yesterday at Eastgate Nursing Center, East Providence.

Born in Providence, a daughter of the late Chaim and Zlota (Goldstein) Shindler, she had lived in Cranston and South Providence before moving to Providence. She and her family had spent many summers at the Narragansett Pier.

Miss Shindler was known for her traditional cooking and creative needlework.

She had been a volunteer for many years for Miriam Hospital, the Rhode Island Heart Association and Hillel House, at Brown University.

Miss Shindler was a member of the Temple Emanuel Leisure Club and the Miriam Hospital Women's Association.

She leaves a sister, P. Susan Shindler of Providence; four nieces, Charlotte Penn, Carolyn Gold, Susan Tejada and Florence Nachbar; and many great-nieces and great-nephews. She was a sister of the late Morris, Samuel, Chandelle and Sara Shindler, Dora Finkler and Gertrude Mondshein.

A graveside service will be conducted tomorrow at noon in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
