EDWARD SHORE, 86, of 60 Shirley Blvd., a retired market owner, and a scientist, died Friday at Rhode Island Hospital.

He was the husband of Madeline (Miller) Shore. Born in Providence, a son of the late Morris and Sophie (Prebluda) Shore, he had lived in Cranston for 51 years.

He was the owner of the former Food Basket, a family business, in downtown Providence for over 40 years. He retired 15 years ago.

He was also a scientist involved in cancer research.

He was a 1938 graduate of the University of Rhode Island. He was a member of Temple Sinai, and a former member of Temple Torat Yisrael. He was a member of Redwood Lodge, AF&AM.

He was an Army veteran of World War II, serving as a captain in the Pacific.

Besides his wife, he leaves three sons, Gary Shore of Barrington, Morris Shore of Sudbury, Mass., and Robert Shore of Irvington, N.Y.; three sisters, Sylvia Weinstein of Highland Beach, Fla., Rose Berlin of Newton, Mass., and Blanche Shore of Providence; and five grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Claire Shore and Shirley Weisman.

A funeral service will be held tomorrow at 11 a.m. in Shalom Memorial Chapel, 1100 New London Ave. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Warwick.
