Bernice E. Shorr

FRAMINGHAM, Mass. — Bernice Evelyn Shorr, 76, of 115 Cochituate Rd., a floor secretary at the former Woonsocket Hospital for 15 years before retiring in 1977, died Monday at Framingham Union Hospital. She was the widow of Morris Shorr, former circulation manager at the Woonsocket Call.

Born in Franklin, Mass., she was a daughter of the late David and Miriam (Cline) Simon. She lived in Woonsocket 50 years before moving to Framingham a year ago.

Mrs. Shorr was a member of Congregation B'nai Israel, Woonsocket, its Sisterhood, and Haddasah.

She leaves a son, David Shorr of Framingham; a daughter, Marjorie Sandler of Portland, Maine; two brothers, Alan Simon of Parsippany, N.J., and Harold Simon of Mountainside, N.J.; two sisters, Doris Mandel of Belmont, Mass., and Shirley Cooper of Newton, Mass., and four grandchildren.

The funeral was to be held today at 11 a.m. at Congregation B'nai Israel, Prospect Street. Burial will be in B'nai Israel Cemetery, Woonsocket.
