SIEGEL,
Dr. J. Sanford

May 5, 1934.

DR. J. SANFORD SIEGEL, LONG ILL, DEAD AT 32

Dr. J. Sanford Siegel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Siegel, 63 Pleasant street, died this morning at the Miriam Hospital after a long illness. He was 32 years old, and was one of the youngest veterans of the World War in this city.

Dr. Siegel, after practicing dentistry in New York for some years, opened an office, 290 Westminster street, and practiced there a little more than a year when taken ill.

DR. J. SANFORD SIEGEL

Upon graduating from the Tufts Dental School, he located in New York, where he was a member of the First District Dental Association of New York; the Mt. Sinai Hospital staff, the Aeckscher Foundation, the New York Hospital for Joint Diseases, and the Long Island Hospital.

He was a member of Rhode Island Post, No. 23, Jewish War Veterans. Military honors will be paid him at his funeral Wednesday morning at the home of his parents at 10 o'clock and at his burial in Lincoln Park Cemetery. Rabbi Jonah E. Caplan of the Ahavath Sholom Congregation will officiate. Commander Max Cohen of the Jewish War Veterans will be in command of the military honors.

Besides his parents he leaves four sisters, Mrs. Sol Wald of Providence, Mrs. Abraham Friedman of Brooklyn and Miss Rose Siegel and Miss Molly Siegel of Providence.

SEIGEL—In this city, May 28th, J. Sanford, beloved son of Bernard and Lottie Seigel. Residence, 63 Pleasant street. Notice of funeral later.