SILVER,
Violet

PJ- B 7-4-1994

VIOLET R. SILVER, 99, of the Greenwood House Nursing Home, 1139 Main Ave., died Saturday at the home. She was the widow of Albert Silver.

Born in Philadelphia, Pa., a daughter of the late Lues and Anna Reiter, she lived in East Greenwich for 14 years. She previously lived in New Jersey and Florida.

Mrs. Silver was a past president of the Susan Breslav New York Chapter of the National Home for Asthmatic Jewish Children, now the Children's Asthma Research Institute & Hospital. She was the last surviving child of Lues Reiter, founder of Rau Fastners Co., and was also part-owner.

She leaves a son, Bernard Reiter Silver of Cranston; six grandchildren, and eight great-grandchildren. She was mother of the late Theda Frances Einhorn.

A graveside service will be held tomorrow at Riverside Cemetery, Rochelle Park, N.J.
