Carol Silverbush passed peacefully on the morning of Thursday, December 5, 2024, in Middletown, RI.

Carol was born in Brooklyn, NY on December 8, 1937, to the late Gertie and Joseph Kessler. She is now reunited with her husband and best friend, Ken Silverbush, her daughter, Jody Auerbach, son-in-law Louis Pulner, and brother, David Kessler. She is survived by her devoted daughter, Stacey Mihaly, as well as her son-in-law, Gene Mihaly, grandchildren, Alexa Auerbach, Andrew and Lauren Pulner, and Stephanie Pulner, and her great grandchildren, Jonathan and Madeleine Pulner.

When Carol met Ken, they began a 65-year journey filled with love, adventure, and a deep, enduring connection. Carol graduated from Manhattanville College with a B.A. in Art History, minoring in studio art. When she picked up a paintbrush, magic happened. Her eclectic works live on in the homes of her family. Professionally, she built a successful career as an ophthalmic tech, first in White Plains, NY and next in Providence, RI, where Carol and Ken moved in the late 1980s.

Carol was a woman of quiet strength and sharp intuition, able to read a room like no other. Her greatest joy came from time with her grandchildren and great grandchildren, with whom she shared countless memories, always ready with a listening ear.

A talented cook, golfer, gardener, Yankees fan, and chocoholic, Carol will be deeply missed. May she rest in eternal peace.

A graveside service will be held on Sunday, December 8th, her birthday, at 12:45 pm in the Knollwood Section of Mt. Carmel Cemetery, 5780 Cooper Avenue, Ridgewood, NY. In lieu of flowers, contributions in Carol's memory may be made to John Clarke Senior Living, 600 Valley Road, Middletown, RI 02842.

Carol's family would like to express their deepest gratitude to the entire staff at John Clarke Senior Living for their compassionate care and friendship.

Arrangements are in the care of Sugarman-Sinai Memorial Chapel, Providence.
