Freda Silverman

PROVIDENCE — Freda Silverman, 82, formerly of Providence, a saleslady at the former Patio Shop, Wayland Square, for many years, died Friday at the Oak Hill Nursing Home, Pawtucket, where she lived for the past five years.

Born in Providence, she was a daughter of the late Simon and Fannie (Priest) Klein.

She was a former member of Temple Beth-El.

Her only survivors are three nephews and one niece.

A graveside service will be held today at noon at Lincoln Park
