Harold Silverman

Managed supermarkets; was R.I. Boy Scout official

PROVIDENCE — Harold Silverman, 82, of the Jewish Home for Aged, 99 Hillside Ave., manager of several area supermarkets, retiring in 1962, and active in the Boy Scouts in Rhode Island, died yesterday at the home. He was the husband of Florence (Silverstein) Silverman.

Born in Providence, a son of the late John and Bertha Silverman, he had lived in Pawtucket 35 years before moving back to Providence 6 years ago.

He attended the University of Rhode Island.

One of the earliest Eagle Scouts in the state, he was for many years executive assistant to the late J. Harold Williams, chief executive of the Narragansett Council, Boy Scouts of America, and had been a director of Camp Yawgoog.

Later he was manager of American Supermarkets, Providence, Shore's Supermarkets, Somerset, Mass., and Stop and Shop Supermarkets, Pawtucket and Newport.

He had been a champion bridge player in Rhode Island.

Besides his wife he leaves a daughter, Sue Sirota of Sudbury, Mass.; a brother, Sidney Silverman of Santa Cruz, Calif.; a sister, Selma Ride Merritt in Florida; and two grandsons.

The funeral service will be Sunday at 11 a.m. at the Jewish Home for the Aged Chapel, 99 Hillside Ave. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery, Post Road, Warwick.
