SILVERMAN, JOHN

11-14-48

OVIDENCE SUNDAY JOURNA

JOHN SILVERMAN

Manufacturing Jeweler Dies at Home on Gallatin Street

John Silverman, 65, of 56 Gallatin Street, died suddenly at his home early today of a heart ailment. Born in Austria, he had been a resident of this city about 45 years and was the owner of a jewelry manufacturing plant at 185 Eddy Street.

He was a charter member of the South Providence Hebrew Congregation and also was a member of the Rhode Island Zionists, the Jewish Home for the Aged and the South Providence Loan Association.

Surviving are his widow, the former Rose Silverman; a son, Abner, of Providence; two brothers, Fred, of Providence, and Benjamin, of Austria; two sisters, Fanny and Sally, both of Austria, and three grandchildren.

The funeral will be held at 1 p.m. tomorrow from the Max Sugarman Funeral Home, 458 Hope Street at Doyle Avenue. Burial will be in Lincoln Park Cemetery.