October 13, 1963

John Silverman

JOHN SILVERMAN

Funeral services for John Silverman, 76, of 39 Gallatin Street, who died Sunday after an illness of three months, were held the following day at Temple Beth El. Burial was in Lincoln Park Cemetery.

The husband of Bertha (Gomberg) Silverman, he was born in Russia, Nov. 15, 1886, a son of the late Max and Selma Silverman. He lived in Providence for 72 years and was associated for 30 years with Silverman Bros., a jewelry manufacturing company, before he retired 20 years ago.

He was a member of B'nai B'rith, Temple Beth El and the Touro Fraternal Association and was a member of the board of trustees of the Jewish Home for the Aged.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by two sons, Harold of Pawtucket and Sidney Silverman of Hillsborough, Calif.; a daughter, Mrs. Robert Merritt of Reddick, Fla.; a brother, Archibald Silverman of Providence; two sisters, Mrs. Rose Sachs and Mrs. Gertrude Stone, both of Providence; four grandchildren, and five great-grandchildren.